Quilt Room Tour

“Save the Date” September 12, 2015 for the “Creativity Around the Guild” quilt room tour. Tickets will go on sale for $5 at next month’s PQG meeting. Two of the hostesses are former PQG presidents. As an added bonus one of the hostesses also likes to make tote bags.

Sandy Klop

The American Jane

Story in Fabric

Sandy Klop was first exposed to quilting in 1979 at her sister-in-law’s home. Sandy had just returned from teaching in Iran and she later taught art in Saudi Arabia. She loved the rich colors and patterns in tiles and carpets of the Middle East. When Sandy returned to California, she began to make pattern samples for a quilt shop and moved on to machine quilting and teaching quilt classes. She ventured out as American Jane Patterns in the early 2000’s and at 2003 Quilt Market, Moda approached her to see if she would like to capture her look in fabric. She has been designing for Moda ever since, having a new fabric range every six months and designing quilt patterns to feature the new fabrics. Sandy and her husband Stan live in Walnut Creek, CA. We welcome this native of Holland, MI for two lectures on “The American Jane Story in Fabric” and a Wednesday workshop.

President's Notes

by Mayleen Vinson

The Countdown Begins!

This month our guild will be electing the new President and her Board for our fiscal year beginning in October. The current board and I are busy finishing up tasks, dealing with paperwork, and getting ready to turn things over to our successors. I'm fairly sure I speak for my Board when I say, "2015-16 President and Board, we're glad to see you!"

Another thing our guild will be doing at our general meeting is filling out the Interests and Skills survey. I hope many of you respond because our new President will need to know about any skills you could use in our guild and who is interested in serving on committees and the board. This past year in addition to choosing 26 Committee Chairs and Co-chairs, I had to replace eight board or committee members. This survey is very important!

Please take some time to think of ways you can volunteer at Guild. We need you!

See you at guild, Mayleen

PS – After our last meeting, I especially enjoyed reading the suggestions in the guild's Suggestion Sack. Want to be heard? Write a note and slip it into the Suggestion Sack on the Membership table!

Please be respectful of others and refrain from talking during the meeting!

LET'S BEE SOCIAL!!!

Prairie Quilt Guild's Annual "Bee Tea"

Whether you are new to Prairie Quilt Guild, a long-time member, or somewhere in between, have you thought about joining a small group of people for some camaraderie? How about instead of a group situated in a specific area of town you were part of a group interested in making specific types of quilts?! If you have been thinking about this, or if this has brought to mind a new adventure, please join Prairie Quilt Guild's annual Bee Tea ... LET'S BEE SOCIAL!

Also, if you already belong to a small "Bee" but your "Bee" has room for more, or if you would like to be a part of a second (or third?) "Bee" please come to Prairie Quilt Guild's annual Bee Tea ... LET'S BEE SOCIAL!

Let's be honest, we are all busy and to try to fit just one more thing in our schedule can prove to be, shall we say, a matter of priorities, but you owe it to yourself to enjoy some 'me' time, and what better way than to be a part of something great – a small "Bee".

WHEN: Saturday, August 15, 2015

10:30 a.m. – 12:00 noon

WHERE: Senior Services Center, main room

(where we hold our monthly Guild meetings)

Please let me know either by email or at the August meeting if you are planning to attend (if at all possible) so that I can be adequately prepared (the possibility of chocolate is great!)

I hope to see you there,

Donna Loehr

as you enter!*

Workshop Information

Please read the Guild Workshop Policies first before registering for one of our speakers' workshops.

Workshops cost $40.00 for a one-day workshop. They are held on the second floor (elevator available) of the Midwest Kia showroom, 8725 West Kellogg, Wichita KS 67209, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the Wednesday following guild meeting day.

Please check the class description for details about the cost and materials needed for each class. Workshop fees are non-refundable. Supply lists are available at <http://www.pqgks.com/programs.html>.

Please be sure to bring and wear your name-tag at workshops so the speaker will know who you are! Sign up for these classes at Guild meetings or by contacting Rita Ashley at 686-1067.

Workshop Policy

Workshop fees are non-refundable, unless Prairie Quilt Guild determines it is necessary to cancel the workshop. It is the participant's responsibility to find a replacement if they are unable to attend after committing to take the workshop. Workshops will be open to both members and non-members on a first come first serve basis, with an additional fee for non-members. Two months prior to a workshop if it is not filled, it shall be opened to the public.

Just a reminder -

Doors open to members and visitors at noon and again at 6 pm, one hour before our guild meetings begin. Our speaker, board members and committee chairs are busy setting up and preparing for the meeting.

August Workshop

Sandy Klop's workshop on Wednesday, August 12 will be her Red Daisy pattern. The workshop is $40, the pattern is additional $10. Sandy says, "If you cut your pieces ahead of time you can make better use of your time in class. So for sure cut the wedges. But if you want you can cut the sashing pieces and sew them. Most everyone will know how to do nine patches, but if not we will cover those in class too. Thanks for asking!" Those taking Sandy's workshop may make preparations accordingly. Sewing machine in good working order and the items called for in the pattern are necessary. This will be a 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. class held at the Midwest Kia dealership.

Visit our website at www.pqgks.com

Upcoming Workshop

Wednesday, September 9 Jan Hutchison will hold a Machine Trapunto workshop. This will be a 3 hour 9 a.m. to noon class, costing $25. Experience with machine quilting is needed; you will not learn to quilt in this class! The supply list is available on our website.

Library Lines

I'm really looking forward to next month's Quilt Room Tour. Seeing what others have done to organize their sewing areas inspires me to try something different in mine. Each year I get more ideas about arrangement as well as decoration.

The guild's library has two books to offer for check-out that are on this topic of setting up a quilting area. Setting Up Your Sewing Space: From Small Areas to Complete Workshops covers setting up your work space by task, such as cutting area, pressing area, storage, and sewing. Creating Your Perfect Quilting Space teaches how to set up the perfect work triangle and create storage space that makes finding your tools, magazines, and fabrics fast and efficient. Many topics are covered:

spaces, lighting, ergonomics, and design walls. Also there are tips for how to do it on a budget, and how to use what you already have more efficiently. This books will help you make the most of the space you have. Photos provided show the before and after.

Then if you want to make decorations for your sewing room, the book Needles & Notions: Paper-Pieced Patterns with a Sewing Room Theme is the book for you.

Now I'm reflecting on last month. Weren't you impressed with what the folks from Kids' Camp had made? If you have young ones that you want to help learn the art of quilting, the guild library has books that you may want to check out. Among them are Flavor Quilts for Kids to Make: Complete Instructions for Teaching Children to Dye, Decorate, and Sew Quilts by Jennifer Amore; Kids Can Quilt by Barbara Erkmeier; and Sewing Fun for Kids: Patchwork, Gifts & More! By Lynda Milligan & Nancy Smith.

Finally, I just want to remind you to return all materials checked out from the library so that we can begin the new guild year with a clean slate—no overdues, no fines.

Pets 'n Quilts!

Our "just for fun" Pets 'n Quilts contest is over and now its time to vote for the winners. Please come to our August 11 meeting to see photos and vote for the two winners: "Funniest" and "Cutest"! There was one more category – "Most Unusual Pet" but since only photos of cats and dogs were entered, there will not be a winner in that category. I'll announce the winners at our September 8 guild meeting.

JUNE 16-18, 2016

Coming Soon.....

In just 10 months and 3 weeks, it will be Quilt Show time again. In 2016, there will be some things that are new and different. First, there's a new logo that's bright, colorful and eye-catching. Also, the name has been expanded; we're now the "Common Threads Regional Quilt Show."

Quilt guilds in the south central area will be invited to participate in the 2016 show. Their members will be able to enter quilts for exhibition and also in the judged categories. Entries for PQG members will be accepted beginning in January, while members of Participating Guilds can submit their applications as of February 1.

Participating Guilds will be expected to promote the show in their local communities, helping to increase attendance. They will also provide volunteers to work during the show and to help hang quilts before the show and take them down after the show.

Two other opportunities are available to Participating Guilds. Information Booths, in an area adjacent to the quilts, can be reserved for a fee of $50, which covers our cost to set up the booth. Here they may sell tickets for their Opportunity Quilts and provide information about their activities. Guilds that also want to sell items handmade by their members may reserve a booth in the Merchant's Mall for a fee of $100.

We're looking forward to welcoming our quilting friends from south central Kansas to be part of the 2016 Common Threads Regional Quilt Show!

Our Visitor/Renewal Policy

A visitor is someone who has never been a member before and may visit twice before paying the membership fee.

If a former member would like to attend one of our meetings, they must renew their membership ($25) to attend a meeting, even if they want to attend just one meeting.

Pets and Quilts!

Rescued kittens. They washed out from under our backyard shed during a 2 1/2 inch rain storm and are now about 8 weeks old. The one with white has a home, his name is Max. The other one I'm keeping, he almost drown in the mud hole he washed out in. Vet told me he was worried that he wouldn't make it, but he is now doing great. I'm naming him Montgomery, Monty for short.

The Persian Pickle Club Film

Here is the most recent information I have received about the status of the movie.

Donna Loehr

Hello Pickle Fans,

I know that it has been frustrating for all of you that the film is not out yet. Believe me, I live with this frustration every day.

Funding is taking longer than I ever thought possible.
I have faith that the project will eventually resonate with someone or a company that can see the potential of this amazing story about these women, their friendship and the bond that keeps them strong, it's just too good not to make into a film! Thank you for all your encouragement, it helps.

Hang in there,

Christine

A Home for the Prairie Quilt Guild

In June, the Guild meetings returned to the Downtown Senior Center. Many members were happy to be “home” while many others regretted losing the larger space and 19th Century charm of the Scottish Rite Center. At times when we have lots of activities going on at the same time requiring multiple sign-up tables -- like the months prior to the Quilt Show – we all feel the pinch of limited space at the Senior Center. Inevitably the question is raised “Isn’t there any place else that the Guild can meet?”

In 2012, a committee was formed to look at the future of the Guild. As part of that task, they evaluated numerous venues as potential meeting sites. The committee identified minimum requirements to meet our current needs and allow for growth in the near future:

- Seating for up to 500 people
- Sufficient space for tables to accommodate ongoing and pre-show activities, i.e. membership, hospitality, workshops, charity quilts, volunteer sign-up, etc.
- Staging from which to show quilts and accommodate speaker needs

- A/V including a screen, projector and sound system
- Space for the library immediately adjacent to the meeting room
- Storage for the library, quilt racks and assorted meeting equipment
- Free parking and a secure evening environment
- Rental fees that are consistent with the Guild’s budget

Venues considered included the Scottish Rite Center, Art Museum, Palace, Grand Chapel, All American Indian Museum, WSU Metropolitan Center, Friends University, and numerous churches, both downtown and in outlying area.

Few of those facilities had sufficient space to meet our needs, and none of them, except the Scottish Rite Center, were willing to commit their space on the second Tuesday of each month. The facilities all needed to be able to give first preference to their own programs and services that are sometimes scheduled on a short term basis. So, for now and the foreseeable future, the Guild is at home at the Downtown Senior Center.
