The December meeting will feature our Christmas Party. Home-baked cookies will be shared as part of the event. A harp ensemble featuring Susanne Shields, Kathleen Lehman and our own Lee Miescher will perform music for our holiday enjoyment.

In addition, you can shop. Several of our loyal Quilt Shops will have tables filled with small gift items; notions, fat quarters and other fun stuff to buy for yourself and your quilty friends.

Please bring your traditional Red and Green quilts or Holiday quilts for Show and Share. Come join the party and enjoy some holiday fun!

President's Notes

By Judy Ermey

The Joy of Making Gifts

From my early childhood, I used my hands to make things, such as: doll clothes, marble bags, and embroidery tea towels.

While taking an art class in the seventh grade, I had an opportunity to learn how to work with leather. From that experience came about a hand made leather key holder. I was thrilled to give that key holder to my dad that Christmas.

My Dad passed away in 1972. While helping my Mother sort through his things, I found that he was still using that leather key holder, all those years.

A special bond is made when we create items for family and friends. Likewise when we make quilts or other craft items for our family, especially for our grandchildren, a special bond and memories are being made.

Merry Christmas

Judy

Calling All Orphans

If you'd like to contribute an orphan block for my President's quilt, please bring it to our December guild meeting and put it in the tub located near the Treasurer's table. If you aren't able to attend the meeting, you may also mail it to me. Remember to sign your block.

I'd like to thank everyone who's already contributed a block! The response has been far greater than I'd hoped and I'm enjoying seeing the wide variety of blocks. Sometime this coming winter I plan to sort the blocks by color and design. Then I'll decide how many quilts your blocks will become and get to work. I hope to share several completed projects with you in September when I'm the guild speaker.

Thanks again!

Library Lines

I must begin this column by saying that its content is much like a crazy quilt design—different fabrics in a variety of shapes. My thoughts this month are all over the place.

Thank you for supporting the library last month by donating and purchasing books, magazines, and patterns at our sale. We made enough money to buy a new book truck (with 5” wheels) that should make moving the carts from storage each month much easier and also to buy some new reading material for you.

Basically, I read for two different reasons: to get information and to pass the time. Once in awhile when I am reading for pleasure, I also glean information. That’s a bonus! One such book that is a pleasure to read and from which I learned something about the Civil War, Quakers, slavery, and quilting is Tracy Chevalier’s The Runaway Slave. I am pleased to announce that the guild library is adding that novel to its fiction collection this month. Just remember that when you check out books, you must present your current membership card. Books and magazines are checked out for one month. Overdues are $1.00 per item, per month. Although the library makes money from fines, it is not our preferred method for achieving a budget.

As a way of giving back to those who check out materials from the library, we will draw names (one from the afternoon meeting and one from the evening meeting) to award a certificate to attend a guild workshop of your choice. Also, each time you return items or donate items to the library, you may select a free pattern from the many available.

Perhaps you have one of the same dilemmas I do: large-scale prints and what to do with them. I know how I accumulated those prints. They were just too beautiful to leave in the quilt shops. I had to have them. Now I have quite a collection, and no ideas on what to do with them. Fortunately, the guild library offers books on this subject: Tricks with Chintz: Using Large Prints to Add New Magic to Traditional Quilt Blocks by Nancy S. Breland and Living Large—11 Quilts designed for Large-Scale Prints.

Come by the library and check out the table filled with new books for check out and browse the carts for books for your next quilting project.

CHARITY QUILT NEWS

I have just begun as the new Chair person for Charity Quilts. I would like to thank all who have given of their time, fabric, money, and talents over the past few years.

The time has come to ask you to give again to make quilts for those in need. So I am open to any fabric you have to give, with time to work on piecing, binding, or quilting. Without your donations & help, there would be no charity quilts to donate.

I have several packets made up so you can do whatever part you wish. There have been so many of you just leaving the finished quilts on my table. Please continue to do that so I know your desire to help is a strong and loving one.

I am always looking for new places to donate our quilts as well. So if you have a place in mind, please bring those to my attention. Stop by my table just to say "Hi," too. Other quilters are such nice people, don't you think?

Our Visitor/Renewal Policy

A visitor is someone who has never been a member before and may visit twice before paying the membership fee.

If a former member would like to attend one of our meetings, they must renew their membership ($25) to attend a meeting, even if they want to attend just one meeting.

September Selvages 2016

Are you saving selvages to contribute for the September Selvage Workshop? Please remember that all selvages MUST have at least 1/4 inch of fabric showing past the selvage. If the 1/4 inch of fabric isn't there, the selvage can't be used.

Please give your selvage donations to Mayleen Vinson at our guild meetings. Thank you!

2015-16 Block of the Month

A Mystery Quilt of Valor

Note on yardage:

- This month uses Medium Blue #1. If you don't have enough of this fabric left from the October BOM, substitute a similar shade of blue. Or you may want to find more of your original Medium Blue #1. Either way, you will need 9" to 12" for the December block.
- The original yardage requirements were incorrect for the white-on-white. You will need 4 yards for the whole project.

DECEMBER BLOCK

From medium blue #1 cut:

- Eight 5 1/2" x 3" rectangles
- Four 3 5/8" squares
- Four 3" squares
- Two 5 7/8" squares

From white-on-white cut:

- Sixteen 3" squares
- Two 10 7/8" squares

On the wrong side of a white 3" square, lightly draw a diagonal line. Layer the white square on one end of a blue 5 1/2" x 3" rectangle, right sides together, and sew on the marked line. Press the white flap back and cut away the excess white and blue corner underneath. Repeat process for the other end of the white rectangle as shown. Do the same for all eight of the blue 5 1/2" x 3" rectangles.

Cut the two blue 5 7/8" squares in half diagonally. Sew one to a blue 5 1/2" x 3" rectangle as shown. Make four of these.

Cut the four blue 3 5/8" squares in half diagonally. Sew one to the end of a blue/white rectangle as shown. Make four of these.

For the remaining 5 1/2" x 3" blue/white rectangles, sew a 3" blue square to the right end, and a blue 3 5/8" half-square triangle to the left end.

Join the two sections as shown below.

Now cut the white 10 7/8" squares in half diagonally. Match a white triangle to each pieced blue/white triangle, aligning corners. Trim any blue fabric that extends past the white triangle. Sew the seam to form a 10 1/2" square. Make four of these and save for further instructions!

GREAT PROGRAMS

This is your chance to tell the Vice President Elect where to go! The next three months are being spent contacting potential speakers and workshop teachers for 2016-2017. Yes, some speakers are booked out even further, so time is of the essence. If there is someone you would like to come share their talents, experiences, and quilts... let Vera Zahner know. Email me at vspeaker@cox.net and I will contact them for their availability and fee schedule. The goal is to bring a great mixture of topics, personalities, and techniques to help you as a quilter, and all of us as a guild to be better at the art, science and spirit of quilting. Thanks
