WORKSHOP POLICY

Workshops are first open to guild members. If, after the Guild meeting the month preceding the scheduled workshop there are vacancies remaining, then the workshop will be opened up to non-members. Workshop reservations are held only with full payment of the registration fee. When reservations are phoned in to the Workshop Chair, the person will be placed on a waiting list until payment is received. Registration for one-day workshops is $30 and $60 for two-day workshops. Refunds will only be given if a workshop is canceled by PQG. Members are responsible for finding and securing funds from another member if he/she is unable to attend the class if there is no waiting list.
