June 2019 Program

Rose Wiebe Haury

Rose Wiebe Haury grew up in Hillsboro, Kansas and has lived in Goshen, Indiana; Topeka, Kansas; Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; and is now retired in Newton. She taught Home Economics for several years. Her husband, David, is a retired Archivist/ Historian.

She has been interested in fabric and stitching forever! Her grandmothers and her mother were stitchers of various sorts. Rose made her first quilt, a cross stitched gingham baby quilt, in 1974. Her favorite quilting projects are fast and easy, squares, rectangles, and strips with the fabrics doing most of the work.

When not quilting, Rose loves to read, travel, and visit quilt stores. She enjoys working with Quilters' Corner before and at the Mennonite Central Committee Relief Sale in Hutchinson.

Rose is always happy to share pictures of her granddaughters Myra, three years, and Hazel, five months!

She will be presenting her trunk show, "A Little of This and A Little of That!", at both our afternoon and evening meetings.

President's Notes

By Sara Farley

Birthdays

Those of us who were fortunate enough to attend Gyleen Fitzgerald's workshop were treated to a fun, creative, and productive day. I'm guessing you will soon see many of these quilts in Show and Share because most of us were able to complete 16-20+ blocks!

Gyleen kept us entertained at lunch as well! In particular, I remember her talk about how she celebrates a birthday MONTH! Now that caught my attention since we are celebrating our birthday! Personally on my birthday I don't need gifts, but I love birthday traditions—the cake and (homemade!) ice cream, the wishes, and for my family, the toast. In my house, on the morning of your birth, someone makes you toast—decorated with peanut butter and a vast array of toppings like icing, sprinkles, fruit, and maybe whipped cream! We've toasted with butterflies, quilt blocks, tic-tac-toe games, various art installations, and even a "tire" for the year my husband re-TIREd!

How will we celebrate at our June meeting? One of our traditions is the awarding of sets of birthday blocks. There's usually a cake table, too. But the gifts? The gifts we bring are really ourselves and the talents we have that we have donated so willingly over the years.

Norma Johnston, our first president, captured a great attitude on the celebration of birthdays on a quilt she made entitled "It's Like I Said": "Count your age by friends, not years; Count your life by smiles, not tears."

How many years have you been part of the celebration? Looking forward to celebrating with you again or for the first time!

The New Feathered Star Workshop

Feathered Star is one of the most beautiful traditional blocks, often attempted in the past only by master quilters, because of the need for such precision piecing of the tiny triangles. Piecing them in rows with the Quick-Strip Paper Piecing method makes it possible for all levels of quilters to make this block much easier and faster! New settings, including setting the octagon on point, give a totally new look to this classic favorite.

After the Founders: Celebrating Birthdays

By Sara Farley

PQG has celebrated its birthday each year. Here's a look back at some of the ways we have done so.

For the first eleven birthdays, PQG held only an evening meeting so that the entire "family" could gather for the celebration. Most years there were speakers—sometimes national speakers like Sandi Fox (1984), Eileen Trestain (1995), Elly Sienkiewicz (1998), and Katie Pasquini Masopust (2005), and often times regional voices like Maudie Tinkler (1985), Linda Goodmon Emery (1990), Tony Munoz (1996), and Lynne Hagemeyer (2018).

Some years we celebrated with other kinds of programs. In 1989, we had a one-act play "Planting in the Dust" about a farm woman's connection with the land. In 1993 we held a UFO auction, raising $1784 for the purchase of library books. Several years (1999, 2002, 2003, and 2012) guild members shared their memories of guild history. Often times there was music—at least singing "Happy Birthday" to ourselves—but we also heard Maudie Tinkler play the harmonica.

With our biennial shows held in June in even-numbered years, our recognition of these anniversaries was also shared with the community. In 2002, eleven special exhibits were held in museums in Wichita and North Newton. For our 30th year (2012) Gail Hand, Marilyn Austin, Nancy Hornback, Eleanor Malone, and Judy Erney arranged a display of newspaper clippings, national magazines featuring the guild, and other ephemera from our past.

One way we have marked our birthdays has been the birthday block. Norma Johnston, our first president, started this tradition with the Pin Wheel. Members made blocks and for each block made got a chance to win a collection of blocks. In 2008 25 years of blocks were compiled in a book by Gail Hand.

Here's to another year!

Archive Project Proposal Update

The project to convert the Show and Share photos and the first five years of newsletters into a digital archive was presented to the guild at the May afternoon and evening meetings. Jackie Clark moved that the guild pay Witnessing Greatness Corp. up to $2000 to scan and process these items. Donna Bradbury seconded the motion. Following the discussion the membership voted almost unanimously in favor of the project. The process of developing the filing system and scanning photos has already begun and should be completed before the end of September.

Update on the Sale of the Scottish Rite

As noted at the May meeting, our monthly rent is going to increase from $600 to $1057.50. In addition, the new owners want to have a month by month arrangement. The consequence of that is that we cannot be guaranteed a space for our meetings on the second Tuesday of each month. We are still negotiating to try to get better terms, but we will also be looking for a new site.

The board met between the afternoon and evening meetings in May to consider the steps we need to take. Marilyn Austin and Donna Lynden have been appointed to a committee to search for another meeting site. This committee has already met and formulated a series of questions to ask as well as list of sites to consider. The search is underway!

We would welcome your ideas and suggestions as we consider our options. What is most important to you as we evaluate the sites? Please forward any ideas to Marilyn Austin or Donna Lynden or Sara Farley.

Gift Quilt to Wichita Scottish Rite

In appreciation for the welcome we have received from the volunteers of the Wichita Scottish Rite, we presented Tony Nelzen with a quilt at the May meeting. Over the years these volunteers set up the room for our guild meetings, board meetings, and workshops. They also greeted us at the door, watched over the parking lot, gave our speakers tours, and repaired library carts.

At the afternoon meeting, Tony Nelzen was present and spoke to the membership. He noted that the members of his organization considered it an honor to host us in this building. He also noted that with the sale of the building, this group could now focus more completely on their mission to serve the community. This quilt will be used as a fundraiser for their charity work, RiteCare, which offers clinics across Kansas for speech, language, and hearing services for children.

The quilt Scrappy String Stars was completed by Jan McCreary (chair), Barb Kroeber, Jan Hutchison, Karen Hammond, and Shirley Thomas, and (not pictured).

2018-2019 Block of the Month - June 2019

“To The Nines” / Block of the Month / Block 9

It’s time to step it up a bit. This month we will mix new techniques with those of a previous block and have another traditional block with more “cousins”!

Maltese Star will use modified Grandmother’s Choice units (see Block 4), then add a square-in-a-square unit, and spikey points without specialty rulers or templates. It may sound like a large order for a single block, but I think it is worth it!

|              |                  | Fabric | # | 6"              | 9"              | 12"             |
|--------------|------------------|--------|---|-----------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| Corner units | HST/ small       | light  | 2 | 2 1/2"          | 2 3/4"          | 3 1/4"          |
|              | square           | dark   | 2 | 2 1/2"          | 2 3/4"          | 3 1/4"          |

|              | large rectangle  | light  | 2 | 2 3/4" x 3 3/4" | 3 3/4" x 4 3/4" | 5" x 6"         |

| Center unit  |                  | light  | 1 | 1 5/8" x 1 5/8" | 2 1/8" x 2 1/8" | 2 5/8" x 2 5/8" |
|              | corners          | dark   | 2 | 1 5/8"          | 2 1/8"          | 2 5/8"          |
|              | Unit size |        |   | 2"              | 2 3/4"          | 3 1/2"          |
| Side units   |                  | light  | 4 | 2" x 2 3/4"     | 2 3/4" x 3 7/8" | 3 1/2" x 5"     |
|              | star points      | med    | 8 | 2" x 3 1/2"     | 1 3/4" x 5"     | 2" x 6"         |
|              | Unit size |        |   | 2" x 2 3/4"     | 2 3/4" x 3 7/8" | 3 1/2" x 5"     |

Corner units: Use the first 2 fabrics above to make four HSTs, then trim to the size of the small square of line 3. Now use the instructions of Grandmother’s Choice to complete the units, substituting the HSTs for the small squares and placing the dark triangle to the outside corners of the pieced rectangles. Center unit: Cut the two dark squares in half diagonally. Stitch a triangle to each side of the center square. Side units: For this odd angled unit use a ‘flip’ corner technique. Determine the center of the background rectangle on one end. Use a pin thru a corner of the star point rectangle and the background rectangle at the 1/4" center seam points. Swivel the free end of the medium piece to the outer edge of the light. To avoid losing the points, the medium tip piece will extend beyond the background at the side edge. As an alternate method for this unit draft it for paper piecing, or cut templates.

Cousin blocks are: a Marti Michel BOM block for Stonehenge that turns each side and corner unit 180 degrees.

A block called “Claws” found in Khin & referring to Perfect Patchwork, has a four-patch center, a kite shaped ray in place of Grandmother’s Choice, and a wider angle in the side units. 54-40 or Fight from www.mccallsquilting.com uses four patches in the corners and the center unit, with a different angle in the side units using paper templates for cutting. - Barb

Charity Corner

I can barely express thank you for the 18 quilts that will go to charities this month. We received A bounty of backing fabric. Thank You for that as well. A New opportunity is coming soon. A request has been made for fidget quilts. That is a small quilt with color, texture and a bit of embellishment to be a therapeutic tool for persons with dementia. Several members have made them for hospitals and nursing homes in the past. It is a fun way to use orphan blocks, and all kinds of creative ideas involving a marble, pocket, or yoyo. Give it some thought.

Summer Quilt Camps 2019

Beginning Quilt Camp

July 8-12 or July 15-19, 2019

This is a chance to spend some quality fun time with a special young person in your life. Campers 8-16 must have a PQG member/sponsor with them at camp each day.

Lessons on general sewing and instructions for learning projects will be taught by committee members. We will start with basics and be amazed and in awe when the campers take to quilting from designing to finishing on their own. It is a heartwarming and rewarding experience for all.

Each camper needs to have their own camp booklet ($10). Camp is from 9:00—3:30, Monday through Friday at the Ascension Lutheran Church, 824 N. Tyler Road, Wichita, KS. Don't miss out on all that awaits you at PQG Kids Quilt Camp!

Some donated fabric will be available at camp from which campers can pick, if needed. If you have questions, please call or text Freema Covey at 316-250-9799.

Sampler Adult Quilt Camp

June 24-28, 2019

Hen Feathers has teamed up with the Sampler Camp Committee to sponsor the camp! She is helping us get the Marti Michell templates and other needed tools and supplies so that every camper will have a set to use at camp! And if campers want to keep their "kit" she is offering them for a very special low price! One more way she is supporting this camp is with a 20% off coupon for fabric, thread, batting and backing for your camp quilt! Stop by our Camp table at the next meeting to pick up your coupon and additional information for your booklet. Camp is almost here. Don't miss out on the fun and fellowship!

Camp is from 8:30—3:30 Monday through Friday at the Ascension Lutheran Church, 824 N. Tyler Road, Wichita, KS
